Because of a big event "Karelian Days" at the same time in Pori the hotel cannot offer rooms for the night 15th – 16th June. Rooms for that night in some hotel in Helsinki will be preliminarily booked. You probably like to explore our capital city on the same trip. Mainly the flights are via Helsinki.

Rooms are booked also in the Hostel Buisto in the city centre as follows:

13th – 16th June

4 single 38 € per night per room including sheets

3 double 50 € per night per room

Nearby the hostel there is Café Brunssi, where you can have a breakfast. In the hostel there is a shared kitchen.

ARRIVING PORI

Pori is a city and municipality on the west coast of Finland. It was established in 1558. The municipality has a population of 83.300. Pori is the 11th largest city in Finland. The distance between Helsinki and Pori is about 250 km. Pori is known for the sandy beaches of Yyteri and for hosting Pori Jazz, an annual international jazz festival. There are various ways to reach Pori which include train, bus and plane routes. Most international flights coming to Finland arrive at the Helsinki-Vantaa airport. There are also direct flights going from Helsinki to Pori at regular intervals. You may also arrive to Pori via Turku or Tampere. Reaching Pori by train requires you to take a train connection from Helsinki to Tampere where you switch trains before arriving at Pori.
